

3D Project Judging Form

Name of Entrepreneur(s) _____ Grade Level 8

Name of Company _____

Title of Product _____

Judge _____ Date _____

Circle the appropriate rating. 5 is the highest (outstanding) and 1 is the lowest (poor) for each criterion. A 5 should be reserved for extraordinary effort. A score of 4 also reflects excellence, but is not quite as outstanding in a criteria area.

1. Does this product identify and address a problem? 5 4 3 2 1 A unique idea that solves a real problem. Shows insight; addresses a real problem.	5. How effectively has the inventor advertised or presented the product? 5 4 3 2 1 Eye-catching, interesting presentation Adequate presentation Little or no attempt to promote product
2. How well has this entrepreneur done research and provided evidence to show that no similar product exists? 5 4 3 2 1 Carefully documented, Sufficiently documented, Very little documentation	Judge's Overall Recommendation: Check One: _____ I recommend this product for production. _____ I recommend this product for a certificate of participation.
3. How knowledgeable and enthusiastic is the entrepreneur about the product? 5 4 3 2 1 Able to converse at length about the product and the its uses. Understands and can discuss the product. Is reluctant and/or unknowledgable about the product.	Judges Notes and Comments:
4. How well is this product designed? 5 4 3 2 1 Shows much attention to detail. Adequate design and construction Poorly designed and/or constructed

--	--